

2018 YEAR IN REVIEW

The Catholic League's 2018 Year in Review is now available. It contains an overview of some of our most important victories over the last year, including the defeat of an anti-Catholic judge in Connecticut, a change in leadership at the National Endowment for the Arts, our victory in court defending the due process rights of accused priests in Pennsylvania, and much more.

To read it, click here.