

Catholic civil rights group calls for Ryan chief of staff to resign over alleged anti-Catholic remarks

Bill In the News (The Hill):

A top Catholic civil rights group has called for Speaker Paul Ryan's (R-Wis.) chief of staff to resign for allegedly making anti-Catholic remarks to the House chaplain when conveying Ryan's request for his resignation.

"It's time Ryan found himself a new chief of staff. Anti-Catholic bigotry cannot be tolerated anywhere, and certainly not in Washington," Catholic League president Bill Donohue said in the statement Friday, as reported by CNN. READ MORE HERE
