

ABORTION CLINIC SPONSORS BIGOTRY

An abortion clinic in West Palm Beach, Florida, is distributing anti-Catholic literature sponsored by the Catholic bashing group, Catholics for a Free Choice. Father Thomas Euteneuer of Holy Cross Catholic Church brought this issue to our attention, but neither he nor the Catholic League have succeeded in getting the clinic's director, Mona Reis, to cease and desist.

In his letter to Reis, William Donohue said, "Jews for Jesus is an organization which, if promoted by Catholics, would rightly be seen as a slap at Jews. For someone who is Jewish to promote Catholics for a Free Choice is equally offensive—it is a slap at Catholics."

Donohue asked Reis to stop distributing Catholics for a Free Choice literature. You can write to her at Presidential Women's Center, 1501 Presidential Way, Suite 19, West Palm Beach, Florida 33401.
