

ANTI-CATHOLIC AD

On April 9, two anti-Catholic ads appeared in the classified section of the St. Cloud Times in Minnesota. The first read, "DOES Jesus eat swine? Oh yes, he eats worms, rats, dogs, or anything that moves." The other said, "WE see this Catholic nonsense on TV. Abortion? Why do Catholic girls commit fornication?"

Our initial complaint was not answered, so we went to the top. We got assurance that this would never happen again. It supposedly "fell through the cracks."

We're skeptical when we hear such excuses, but our bottom line is to stop it from happening again.
