

Arizona Diamondbacks host first Catholic spirit night

Bill in the News (Washington Examiner): In a statement, Catholic League President Bill Donohue praised the Diamondbacks for hosting the spirit night for Catholics.

“In June, we led a culture war against the Los Angeles Dodgers for honoring a vile anti-Catholic gay group, the Sisters of Perpetual Indulgence,” Donohue said. “The message was delivered to Major League Baseball – Catholics are fed up being insulted by the elites. That is why events like ‘Catholic Night’ are welcomed. It is a stark rebuke to religious bigots.” READ MORE HERE
