On February 6, Arthur J. Delaney, Jr. passed away. For several years, Art not only directed the Greater Philadelphia/South Jersey chapter of the Catholic League, in the second half of the 1990s he was the chapter coordinator in charge of all chapters throughout the nation.

A high school teacher, Art was active in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia for decades. He will be remembered for his defense of the Church, his strong pro-life commitment and his great sense of humor. May he rest in peace.
