

Ashes to Ashes...

A LaGrange, Georgia, police detective, marking his first Ash Wednesday as a Catholic, was suspended for one day without pay for refusing to remove ashes from his forehead.

Dr. Donohue has spoken to the dectective, Mark Clay, and has promised to intervene in the courts if his internal appeals within the department prove unsuccessful.