

Be It Resolved That...

A special thank you to Massachusetts Knights of Columbus State Deputy Kenneth Ryan (a Catholic League member who serves on the chapter board) and the other state officers for the following resolution passed at this year's annual state convention:

WHEREAS: The Catholic League, founded in 1973 by Father Virgil Blum, is the largest Catholic civil rights organization and is dedicated to combating the rising tide of Catholic-bashing prevalent in America; and

WHEREAS: The League is supported only by the voluntary contributions of thousands of Catholics nationwide; and

WHEREAS: To continue focusing attention on anti-Catholic bigotry and fighting the medias tolerance of discrimination against Catholics, they need the support of every Catholic in America; be it

RESOLVED: That the Massachusetts State Council, meeting at the ninety-ninth Massachusetts State Convention held in Springfield, Massachusetts on April 30 and May 1, 1994, encourages every member of the Knights of Columbus to join in providing financial support to the Catholic League for Religious and Civil Rights.

-Ed. We couldn't have said it better ourselves. Thank you.
