

'Blue Bloods': The Most Catholic Network TV Series Bids Farewell

Bill in the News (National Catholic Register): ...Bill Donohue of the Catholic Civil Rights League – usually in the umbrage-taking business – wrote in 2011, when the show was returned for a second season, that it was “one the few TV shows on the broadcast networks to treat Catholicism fairly” and that “the family-oriented program often casts a good light on Catholicism. Glad the Catholic-friendly show is being renewed.” READ MORE HERE
