

California state senator invites 'anti-Christian' drag troupe member to be honored at state capitol

Bill in the News (Christian Post): [The Sisters of Perpetual Indulgence (SPI)] made national headlines in mid-May after the Dodgers announced they would honor the group at a team pride event and later rescinded the invitation after criticism from conservative groups and lawmakers like Florida Sen. Marco Rubio, who questioned why the Dodgers were awarding "a group of gay and transgender drag performers that intentionally mocks and degrades Christians."

Bill Donahue, president of the Catholic League, called SPI an "obscene anti-Catholic group," and shortly afterward, the team reversed course. READ MORE HERE
