

Howard-Donohue Feud

Please click here to read what Page Six in the New York Post had to say about the Howard-Donohue feud over the upcoming film “Angels & Demons.”

Our Endangered Catholic Schools

Please click here to read an article in the Washington Post on the impact of the closures of Catholic schools and their importance in serving disadvantaged students.

“Corpus Christi” Hoax

Several people have contacted the league about the rumor that the anti-Catholic play “Corpus Christi” is being turned into a movie to be released this summer. Please be advised that this is a hoax.

Deacon Fournier on the Catholic League

Please click here to read an article by Advisory Board member Deacon Keith Fournier on the work of the league as exemplified by our Annual Report on Anti-Catholicism.

Twisted Sisters Commended

At a gala event celebrating the 30th anniversary of the Sisters of Perpetual Indulgence, a group of homosexuals who dress up as nuns, they were given a proclamation from the California state senate by State Sen. Mark Leno of San Francisco. The anti-Catholic group then participated in a block party where, of course, some of the men danced naked. As usual, there were no arrests.

Chicago Trib's Bias

Click here to read the insightful letter on the Chicago Tribune's anti-Catholic bias written by Rev. Thomas J. Paprocki, the auxiliary bishop of Chicago.

Dolan to Fight Anti-Catholic Bias

Archbishop Timothy Dolan, who will be installed on Wednesday as the archbishop of New York, granted an exclusive interview to the Associated Press. Click here to read what he had to say about his priorities.

Clam Rights

Peter Singer is a Princeton professor who believes it is okay for parents to kill their kids until their offspring are 28 days old. He also believes in bestiality: dogs, he says, can convey to their master whether they consent to intercourse. Now he is pushing clam rights.

In today's New York Times, Nicholas Kristof writes that because Singer is uncertain about the capacity of shellfish to suffer, he tends to avoid eating them. Which means that Singer apparently believes that newborn kids who are knifed to death don't suffer, but clams on the half shell might. Whether clams can consent to sex, Singer does not say.

Donohue Responds to Tony

Blair

Click here to read Bill Donohue's response to Tony Blair's comments on Pope Benedict's recent statements about condoms.

Vermont Quiz

Which state has less religious men and women than any other?
Vermont.

Which is the only state to have a socialist senator? Vermont.

Which state has the second lowest birth rate in the nation?
Vermont

Which state has the second highest proportion of whites?
Vermont.

Which state legislature was the first to legalize gay marriage? Vermont.

In other words, Vermont is a lily-white state populated by left-wingers who are anti-traditional marriage and anti-family. Exactly what we would expect of a population where more people believe in nothing than anywhere else in the nation.