

“Catholic Connection”

Bill in the news (“Catholic Connection”): Bill discusses the trans funeral controversy at St. Patrick’s Cathedral with Teresa Tomeo. To listen, click here (Bill begins at 17 minute mark).

Staten Island to hold St. Patrick’s Day Parade welcoming LGBTQ groups for the first time

Bill in the News (2 CBS News NY): The larger Manhattan St. Patrick’s Day parade lifted its ban on LGBTQ groups marching in 2014, but Staten Island still hasn’t. We tried contacting the organizer, but there was no answer. We did get a statement from Catholic League President Bill Donohue, saying in part: READ MORE HERE

New York Cathedral Holds

‘Mass of Reparation’ After ‘Sacrilegious’ Trans Event

Bill in the News (Breitbart): “At the service, many of those in attendance dressed as hookers, danced in the aisles, sang ‘Ave Cecilia’ when ‘Ave Maria’ was sung, and shouted, ‘St. Cecilia, Mother of All Whores,’” noted Catholic League president Bill Donohue. READ MORE HERE

Archdiocese of New York denounces transgender activist’s funeral at St. Patrick’s Cathedral

Bill in the News (FOX 5 NY): Bill Donohue, from the more conservative Catholic League writing: “...men dressed as women and women dressed as men ... At the service, many of those in attendance dressed as hookers, danced in the aisles, sang “Ave Cecilia” when “Ave Maria” was sung...” READ MORE HERE

Joe Biden: Climate Change Is 'More Consequential' Than Nuclear War

Bill in the News (Breitbart): "On Friday, Catholic League President Bill Donohue pointed out that the president's assessment of the problems facing the nation is wildly out of sync with the views of ordinary Americans." READ MORE HERE

Joe Biden Appoints Radical Anti-Christian Leftist John Podesta to Replace John Kerry

Bill in the News (LifeNews.com): "In the case of Podesta, not only is his fidelity misplaced, he has actively sought to subvert the Catholic Church," Donohue continued. "To be specific, we learned in 2016 that Wikileaks documents from 2012 showed how Podesta created Catholics in Alliance for the Common Good, a bogus lay Catholic entity." READ MORE HERE

Biden's New Appointment 'Aiding and Abetting Sabotage within the Catholic Church'

Bill in the News (The Washington Stand): "If a non-Catholic president chose Podesta for a senior post in his administration, we would brand it as anti-Catholic," Donohue told TWS. "When a president who identifies as a Catholic does it, it is aiding and abetting sabotage within the Catholic Church." READ MORE HERE

Letters: The ACLU

Bill in the News (First Things): Helen Andrews's "What Happened to the ACLU" (December 2023) offers a cogent analysis of the ACLU's return to left-wing politics. In the course of writing a PhD dissertation, two books, and a monograph on the organization, I have been convinced that principled civil libertarians have always been in a minority among its most active officials. But Andrews is correct to say that "Recently, something changed." READ MORE HERE

Catholic group demands MSNBC apologize for Joy Reid's 'white Christians' comment

Bill in the News (Christian Post): Bill Donohue, president of the Catholic League for Religious and Civil Rights, wrote a letter to MSNBC President Rashida Jones and Comcast President Michael Cavanagh Wednesday. Donohue's letter comes two days after MSNBC opinion host Joy Reid complained on air that Iowa is "overrepresented by white Christians" as the Iowa caucuses that kicked off the presidential nominating season for the 2024 presidential election were slated to begin. READ MORE HERE

Catholic League Hits MSNBC for Smearing Christians

Bill in the News (Newsmax): Catholic League President Bill Donohue on Wednesday slammed MSNBC for "recent anti-Christian attacks" by network hosts and guests, calling for a "vigorous network response."

In a letter to MSNBC President Rashida Jones, copied to Michael J. Cavanagh, the president of Comcast, Donohue said that the comments were made Monday and Tuesday. READ MORE HERE