

Catholic League Report: Who Are The Most And Least Patriotic?

As we approach our nation's 250th anniversary, it is instructive to learn who are the most patriotic Americans and who are the least patriotic. In this episode of "Catholic League Report" president Bill Donohue and director of communications Mike McDonald take a look at some surveys to measure which demographics in America are the most patriotic and the data are quite revealing.

To watch, click here.

Catholic League Report: America's Malcontents Upfront

Celebrations of our nation's 250th anniversary are underway, yet America's malcontents are trying their best to put their own negative swing on the holiday. In this episode of "Catholic League Report" president Bill Donohue and director of communications Mike McDonald discuss why these malcontents are trying to damper our celebration and the faults in their claims.

To watch, click here.

Catholic League Report: Mamdani Vexed About USA's Birthday

Mayor Zohran Mamdani is torn over the USA's 250th birthday. On the one hand, he knows he has an obligation to celebrate this key moment in American history. But on the other hand, his heart is not really in it. In this episode of "Catholic League Report" president Bill Donohue and director of communications Mike McDonald discuss Mamdani's issues with our country and how they compare to those of his own home country: Uganda.

To watch, click here.

Catholic League Report: Historical Look At Slavery

In an age where people are looking for any reason to bash the United States for its history of slavery it's important to look at the role slavery played in other country's throughout our timeline. In this episode of the "Catholic League Report" Bill Donohue and Mike McDonald take a deep dive on the history of slavery as a concept and it's use throughout history across the globe.

To watch, click here.

Catholic League Report: World Cup Pride Match

As one of the host cities for this year's World Cup, Seattle has decided to dedicate Friday's matchup between Iran and Egypt as their "Pride Match". In this episode of the "Catholic League Report" Bill Donohue and Mike McDonald discuss the imperialist implications this decision hold as well as the conflict among these two country's own cultural beliefs.

To watch, click here.

Catholic League Report: Times Square Billboard Now On Display

Today, the Catholic League put up a digital billboard in New York's Times Square celebrating America's 250th birthday as well as our country's Judeo-Christian heritage. In this episode of "Catholic League Report" president Bill Donohue and director of communications Mike McDonald discuss why the League put up the billboard and where you can find it.

To watch, click here.

Catholic League Report: The Phonies Celebrating Juneteenth

The Left is attempting to use the day of Juneteenth as a tool to virtue signal rather than recognize their own party's involvement in the history of slavery in the United States. In this episode of the "Catholic League Report" Bill Donohue and Mike McDonald discuss how Juneteenth is being recognized as a holiday and the implications this holds.

To watch, click here.

Catholic League Report: MLB "Pride Night" Stance Is Morally Offensive

The MLB issued warnings to three San Francisco Giants players who wrote bible verses on their hats over the weekend in protest of "pride night." In this episode of the "Catholic League Report" Bill Donohue and Mike McDonald discuss this issue along with the letter Bill wrote to Rob Manfred.

To watch, click here.

Catholic League Report: Are We At A Moral Tipping Point

In a string of recent polls, more and more Americans appear to be embracing traditional values. Have we reached some sort of moral tipping point? In this episode of the “Catholic League Report” Bill Donohue and Mike McDonald take a deep dive to examine these trends and discuss what impact they might have on society.

To watch, click here.

Catholic League Report: Washington's Valley Forge Prayer

With America's 250th birthday right around the corner, the haters are out in force to cast aspersions on the founding of our country. Anything they deem to be too patriotic – even worse has a hint of religious overtones – is in their sites. In this episode of the “Catholic League Report,” Bill Donohue and Mike McDonald push back on the efforts to deny George Washington knelt in prayer at Valley Forge.

To watch, click here.