

Catholic group asks Maryland attorney general to end investigation of Catholic Church abuse

Bill in the News (Baltimore Sun): Bill Donohue, president of the national Catholic League for Religious and Civil Rights, wrote that it was “exasperating” that the attorney general’s office persisted in investigating child sex abuse in the Catholic Church. READ MORE HERE