

Catholic group calls Seth Meyers 'sick' after church attack joke

Bill In The News (Owen Sound Sun Times):

Seth Meyers has incurred the wrath of the leading officials at the Catholic League after joking about a bizarre attack at a Brooklyn church.

The joke enraged Catholic League president Bill Donohue, who compared the 12 January attack to recent antisemitic ones in the area, saying "no one" made light of these. READ MORE HERE