

Catholic group demands MSNBC apologize for Joy Reid's 'white Christians' comment

Bill in the News (Christian Post): Bill Donohue, president of the Catholic League for Religious and Civil Rights, wrote a letter to MSNBC President Rashida Jones and Comcast President Michael Cavanagh Wednesday. Donohue's letter comes two days after MSNBC opinion host Joy Reid complained on air that Iowa is "overrepresented by white Christians" as the Iowa caucuses that kicked off the presidential nominating season for the 2024 presidential election were slated to begin. READ MORE HERE