

Catholic Groups Warn Of Increased Church Vandalism, Call For More News Coverage

Bill in the news (Religion Unplugged): “Most of those who work in the mainstream media are pro-abortion, and enthusiastically so,” Catholic League President Bill Donohue said. “As such, they have little interest in flagging the violence that marks protesters on their side. We will continue to track these incidents at the Catholic League and will contact the authorities – we already have – about the need to take action.” READ MORE HERE
