

Catholic leader blasts human rights court for absolving feminist who 'aborted' Jesus on altar: 'No legitimacy'

Bill in the news (Fox News): Bill Donohue, president of the New York-based Catholic League for Religious and Civil Rights, blasted the European high court for exhibiting "an animus against Catholicism" with its Oct. 13 opinion awarding protester Eloïse Bouton with €9,800, according to a statement provided to Fox News Digital. READ MORE HERE