

Catholic Leaders Demand Answers from FBI on Bombshell Discovery Agency Probe into Traditional Catholics 'Bigger than Believed'

Bill in the News (Tennessee Star): National Catholic leaders said the FBI's probe of Catholics, as revealed by documents obtained by the House Judiciary Committee, went far beyond a so-called rogue agent in a single field office in Richmond, as was explained in testimony by agency Director Christopher Wray.

"We are just as disturbed as you are to learn that the FBI's probe of Catholics was never confined to one field office in Richmond," wrote Catholic League President Bill Donohue to Jordan on Thursday. "From the trove of documents you received, it is now known that the FBI's Portland Field Office and the Los Angeles Field Office were also involved in this unseemly investigation." READ MORE HERE
