

Catholic League calls for Ryan to fire his chief of staff over handling of House chaplain

Bill In the News (CNN):

One of the nation's leading Catholic civil rights groups is calling for House Speaker Paul Ryan's chief of staff to resign after he allegedly made anti-Catholic comments to the House chaplain in April.

Catholic League president Bill Donohue referenced in a statement remarks the Rev. Pat Conroy made in a letter rescinding his resignation.

He alleged Ryan's chief of staff, Jonathan Burks, told him the House wanted a chaplain who wasn't Catholic. READ MORE HERE
