

Catholic League cries foul amid civil church investigation

Bill In The News (Staten Island Advance):

The president of the Catholic League accused New York's attorney general of discrimination in a harshly-worded letter Thursday, questioning the fairness of subpoenaing only Catholics as part of the new civil investigation into sexual abuse charges.

*"Your decision to launch a grand jury investigation of Catholic diocese – to the exclusion of all other religions, private non-sectarian institutions and public-sector entities – is manifestly unjust and indefensible," said Dr. William Donohue, president of the Catholic League, the church's anti-defamation and civil rights organization, in a letter to Underwood.
