

Catholic League criticises 'moral panic' surrounding clergy sex abuse cases

Bill In The News (Irish Post):

A Leading Catholic civil rights organisation has hit out at the media coverage of the Pennsylvania grand jury's report detailing hundreds of alleged cases of Catholic Church leaders sexually abusing children.

Bill Donohue, the president of the Catholic League, released a statement criticising the "moral panic" surrounding the Church. READ MORE HERE