

Catholic League Decries Democrats' Growing Hostility Toward Religion

Bill In The News (Breitbart):

One message resounding loudly and clearly from the latest televised Democrat debate is how hostile the party has become toward people of faith, Catholic League President Bill Donohue said on Friday.

According to Dr. Donohue, the Democrat candidates “fail the religion test” for falling over themselves trying to prove who is the most severe in dealing with religious freedom issues. READ MORE HERE
