

Catholic League Decries Media Silence over Pope's Words on Gay Priests

Bill In The News (Breitbart);

The Catholic League, a watchdog group, denounced media silence over powerful statements by Pope Francis saying there is "no room" in the priesthood for homosexuality.

In his critique of the mainstream media's non-reaction to the pope's words, Bill Donohue, the president of the Catholic League, called the decision not to report a "cover-up." READ MORE HERE
