

CATHOLIC LEAGUE EVENT AT NASSAU COMMUNITY COLLEGE

On September 20, the Nassau Community College Center for Catholic Studies will host a conference, "Protecting Religious and Civil Rights." Dr. Bill Donohue, president of the Catholic League, is the main speaker. His address will be followed by a panel discussion. The event starts at 11:00 a.m. in the Multipurpose Room of the College Center Building on the Garden City campus. Lunch will be provided after the event.

The event is free but registration and a parking permit are required. Call (516) 572-7472 weekdays to register; the permit and other info will be mailed to you. Please display the permit on the inside dashboard.
