

Catholic League Forum: Attacks on Catholics from Media & Government

In this special episode of Catholic League Forum, Catholic League president Bill Donohue and director of communications Mike McDonald discuss recent attacks on Catholicism from the media. They also share some important news on a proposed rule change to the Affordable Care Act that would gut religious liberty of Catholic medical professionals and what you can do to help stop it. To watch click here.

Weekly episodes of The Forum will return after Labor Day.