

Catholic League: It Is 'Not Helpful' to Ignore Homosexual Roots of Abuse Crisis

Bill In The News (Breitbart):

The Catholic League has criticized attempts by the New York Times and others to downplay or even deny the homosexual roots of the Church's clerical sex abuse crisis.

As the Vatican begins a three-day summit on dealing with clergy sex abuse, Catholic League president Bill Donohue said that "it is not helpful to the cause of eradicating the problem of sexual abuse in the priesthood to dismiss a conversation about the obvious." READ MORE HERE