

Catholic League: Muslim-Run Nations 'Crush' Religious Liberty

Description

Bill In The News (Breitbart):

In most Muslim-majority nations, "religious liberty is either crushed altogether or it barely exists," wrote Catholic League president Bill Donohue Monday.

Commenting on the findings of the U.S. State Department's "International Religious Freedom Report," which was released on May 29, Donahue said that when rulers of a world religion like Islam oppress people of faith "in the name of God or their spiritual leader" it is "disturbing."
