

Catholic League Praises Trump's 'Stellar' U.N. Speech on Religious Freedom

Bill In The News (Breitbart):

Catholic League president Bill Donohue praised President Trump's address on religious liberty delivered at the U.N. Monday, noting that that his administration has produced "a huge improvement over the Obama years" in this area.

"President Trump continued his legacy of defending religious liberty with a stellar address at the United Nations today," Dr. Donohue said in a statement Monday. READ MORE HERE
