

Catholic League Report: In A Real World Test, USA Emerges #1

Most Americans are justly proud of their country, but some, primarily those on the Left, are not. They are fond of comparing America's treatment of various segments of our society to conditions that would exist in an ideal world. In this episode of "Catholic League Report" president Bill Donohue and director of communications Mike McDonald discuss an accurate cross-cultural analysis of social conditions, past and present.
