

Catholic League Report: Religious Roots Of American Freedom

The role that the Catholic Church has played historically in securing freedom is not well appreciated. In this episode of "Catholic League Report" president Bill Donohue and director of communications Mike McDonald discuss how to set the record straight, especially now that we are about to celebrate America's 250th anniversary.

To watch, click here.