

Catholic League Report: Times Square Billboard Now On Display

Today, the Catholic League put up a digital billboard in New York's Times Square celebrating America's 250th birthday as well as our country's Judeo-Christian heritage. In this episode of "Catholic League Report" president Bill Donohue and director of communications Mike McDonald discuss why the League put up the billboard and where you can find it.

To watch, click here.