

Catholic League Report: Who Are The Most And Least Patriotic?

As we approach our nation's 250th anniversary, it is instructive to learn who are the most patriotic Americans and who are the least patriotic. In this episode of "Catholic League Report" president Bill Donohue and director of communications Mike McDonald take a look at some surveys to measure which demographics in America are the most patriotic and the data are quite revealing.

To watch, click here.