

Catholic League Report: Why America Is Still Free

The most common way to live, across the globe and from the beginning of time, is in a state of authoritarianism. In this episode of "Catholic League Report" president Bill Donohue and director of communications Mike McDonald discuss how, historically speaking, its a freak to live in a free society and even more of a freak to maintain one.

To watch, click here.