

Catholic League Warns 'State Overreach' in Pandemic Threatens Religious Liberty

Bill In The News (Breitbart):

Catholic League president Bill Donohue declared Monday that recent bans on religious activities to curb the spread of the coronavirus constitute "state overreach" that directly threatens religious freedom.

"Whenever religious liberty collides with public health, the government is obliged to put the least restrictive measures on religion," Dr. Donohue stated, which has not been respected in several recent cases. READ MORE HERE
