

Christians wage war against Sweet Jesus

Bill In the News (New York Post):

Sweet Jesus' defense of itself has fueled more outrage. Catholic League President Bill Donohue last week ordered a boycott.

"I would obviously encourage a boycott of the company," Donohue said. "Anyone who is misappropriating a [Christian] symbol, or deliberately using satanic symbols to market a product to unsuspecting consumers, is demonic." READ MORE HERE