

COURAGE REBOUNDS

Father John Harvey heads a wonderful outreach program to homosexual Catholics who want to remain faithful to the Church's teachings on sexuality. It is called Courage. Father Harvey is testimony to the fact that the Catholic Church turns its back on no one.

Unfortunately, the registry company that handled Courage's initial website did not notify Father Harvey that his domain name was about to expire. And so it did. Immediately, a Russian-owned porn company grabbed the name. Thus, unsuspecting persons seeking to access Father Harvey's website got (and still get) porn instead.

The good news is that Courage has a new website, courageRC.net. Everyone is invited to check it out and pass the word about Father Harvey's courageous ministry.
