

Did You Know?

Did you know that this past Christmas a high school principal in Rhode Island banned students from using the word “Christ” in a concert?

And did you know that in Scarsdale, N.Y., teachers were forbidden to distribute candy canes because they were classified as religious symbols?