

DISNEY'S CHARM GREATLY TARNISHED OVER INCREASED POLITICAL ACTIVISM, CRITICS SAY

Bill in the news (National Catholic Register): "Walt Disney must be flipping over in his grave," Donohue told the Register. "He founded Disney so that it would be a great entertainment mega-structure for children and families. Now, they've taken the line of a minority of well-organized people on the left who have their own political agenda, and they're succumbing to that." READ MORE HERE