

Disney's Disenchanted Kingdom

Bill in the news (Front Page Magazine): Today, Disney movies, shows, and parks are minefields of wokeness, which concerned parents navigate with trepidation to protect their kids from radical messaging and sexual grooming. "Walt Disney must be turning over in his grave," Catholic League president and CEO Bill Donohue says in Walt's Disenchanted Kingdom, a 50-minute film which explores the Disney Company's recent, rapid descent into gender madness. "Have we all lost our mind?"
