

DONOHUE ACCEPTS HONORARY POST

William Donohue was recently invited to become a member of the Honorary Board of Governors of the World Congress of Christians, Jews and Muslims, a new interfaith organization. He has agreed to join. The World Congress aims “to harness the spiritual power of faith in the service of universal peace and tolerance.”

The Congress will hold an inaugural two-day Summit on Peace and Tolerance in Kiev, Ukraine, in early 2007. Unfortunately, Donohue’s schedule does not allow him to attend the summit, though he extends his best wishes to everyone involved.
