

ELECTION UPDATE

Attempts to stop the referendum in California on gay marriage failed, but they succeeded in Florida in derailing the referendum on school vouchers. Regarding the California initiative, all the state's bishops signed a strong statement urging Catholics to support the traditional understanding of marriage as a male-female union.

The November results will be closely watched.