

Ex-Employee's Lawsuit Puts SNAP in the Spotlight

Bill in the news: National Catholic Register

But according to Bill Donohue, president of the Catholic League for Religious and Civil Rights, Hammond's lawsuit validates the Catholic League's long-standing accusation that "SNAP is a fraud."

In a Jan. 30 news release, Donohue lists various actions by SNAP and its officials, and by others who have supported the group, which he says indicate the group "is motivated by hate and exploits the very people it claims to serve."

Said Donohue, "Justice demands that it be shut down by the authorities before it does any more harm." READ THE FULL ARTICLE
