

Fox News anchors cut off guests speculating about cause of Notre Dame fire

Bill In The News (Washington Examiner):

Two Fox News anchors cut off guests who tried to talk about suspicions on the origins of the Notre Dame fire on Monday.

Media critic and deputy mayor of Neuilly-sur-Seine Philippe Karsenty's line was cut after he insinuated the fire was a terrorist attack, while Catholic League president Bill Donohue was shut down after he said he was suspicious the fire was related to other church burnings. READ MORE HERE
