

GOP mum on Andrew McDonald nomination to Supreme Court chief

Bill In the News (Connecticut Post):

On Friday, Bill Donohue, president of the Catholic League of Connecticut, charged McDonald with “anti-Catholic bigotry” – referring to when, as chairman of the Judiciary Committee, McDonald allowed legislation to be drafted for a public hearing that might have led to a change in incorporation law for churches. READ MORE HERE