

Harris to skip Catholic charity dinner bucking decades-long tradition

Bill in the News (Catholic News Agency): Bill Donohue, president of the Catholic League, a national Catholic civil rights group, told CNA that Harris' decision is "probably a good move" given the format of the event. READ MORE HERE