

HATE MAIL FANATICS

We certainly get our share of hate mail at the Catholic League. Sometimes the author identifies himself, while others prefer to remain anonymous. One anonymous fanatic sent us 24 pages of e-mail on December 23. Over 6,000 times he simply wrote "F- THE POPE!!!"

Now that takes some work. Imagine the psychological gears this guy has working for him—he could cruise at any speed. We don't know what business our obsessed friend is in, but it would be a shame if he missed his calling and isn't working in the arts.

P.S. Since he signed his name William of Orange and used NO POPE OF ROME for his address, it's a sure bet he's not an atheist. Those of us who are Irish at the Catholic League took special note of this inscription.
