

HATE MAIL

One of the most viciously anti-Catholic pieces of mail ever received at the Catholic League was recently addressed to William Donohue. Obviously angered over our protest of “Yo Mama’s Last Supper,” the offender sent an obscene note to Donohue. On the other side of the self-made “postcard” was a drawing of a man performing oral sex on Jesus Christ nailed to the cross; vulgar inscriptions adorned the drawing.

Sick as this is, it has absolutely no effect on our willingness to continue to fight for the Church. If anything, it strengthens our resolve.
