

HITLER—NOT AN ATHEIST?

Just when we think we've heard it all, we read in Free Inquiry, the house organ of secular humanists, that Hitler was not an atheist.

William Donohue couldn't hold back and that is why he wrote the following: "John Patrick Michael Murphy may have an Irish-Catholic sounding name, but his true colors are that of an atheist. And a dumb one at that. Anyone stupid enough to argue that Hitler was not an atheist—after all that has been written about him—deserves not to have an audience outside the readership of Free Inquiry. I have no doubt that he will get exactly what he deserves."

Next thing you know they'll be saying that Stalin, Mao and Pol Pot were God-fearing men who did what they could to promote religious freedom. We've heard of spin, but this is getting ridiculous.
