

In our opinion: Eliminating clergy-penitent privilege raises First Amendment red flags

Bill In The News (Deseret News):

This week the Catholic League came out strongly against proposed legislation in Utah aiming to eliminate an exemption for clergy when it comes to reporting confidential confessions detailing abuse.

As others have argued, the push to eliminate the clergy-penitent privilege raises First Amendment red flags. READ MORE HERE